BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

OFFICERS AND MEMBERS.—STATED MEETINGS.

Section 1. This Chapter shall consist of a High Priest, King, Scribe, Treasurer, Secretary, Captain of the Host, Principal Sojourner, Royal Arch Captain, three Masters of the Veils, Chaplain, two Stewards, Closet Steward, and Master of the Wardrobe, (the two latter may be united in one person,) together with such Members as are and shall be constitutionally admitted; and shall meet at Masons' Hall, on the evening of the first Wednesday of each month, at the hour appointed by the High Priest.

TIME OF ELECTING AND INSTALLING OFFICERS.

Section 2. All the officers shall be elected annually, on the evening of the first Wednesday of October, by written votes, excepting the Chaplain, Stewards, Closet Steward, and Master of the Wardrobe, who shall be appointed by the High Priest; the election to commence at eight o'clock; and the officers so elected and appointed, shall be installed as soon as convenient.

OFFICERS OF THE APPENDANT DEGREES.

Section 3. The first five officers of the Chapter shall be the first five officers of the appendant degrees; the Masters of the Veils shall be the Overseers, in said degrees, and in the absence of the first three officers, or either of them, their stations to be supplied by the Captain of the Host, Principal Sojourner, and Royal Arch Captain, according to their rank.

ARTICLE II.

DUTY OF THE HIGH PRIEST.

Section 1. The High Priest shall appoint some suitable person for a Tyler to the Chapter, and in concert with the King and Scribe, call special meetings on emergencies.

TREASURER'S DUTY.

Section 2. The Treasurer shall receive the money from the Secretary, and receipt therefor, and shall pay such bills as have been passed by the Standing Committee, as far as the funds will admit; and when he shall have on hand the sum of one hundred dollars, clear of debt, he shall report the same to the Standing Committee, who shall advise and assist him in the disposal and investment of it to the best possible advantage. At the close of the year he shall render a just and fair account of all the money by him received and paid, and shall deliver to his successor in office the balance remaining in his hands, and all other property of the Chapter, which was intrusted to his care, and as a compensation for his services be exempt from quarterages.

DUTY OF THE SECRETARY.—COMPENSATION.

Section 3. The Secretary shall keep a just and fair record of the proceedings of the Chapter; collect all money due, and pay it over, once at least in three months, to the Treasurer; shall issue notifications, one day at least, previous to each regular meeting, on which notifications he shall insert the names, places of residence, and occupations of candidates proposed for exaltation or membership; shall also issue notifications for special meetings, (stating the cause for the same,) as soon as may be after having received directions therefore; shall present the chairman of every committee with a copy of the vote by which he is appointed; shall also report the names of delinquents to the Standing Committee, and notify said delinquents of the same; and as a compensation for his services, shall be exempt from quarterages, and receive two dollars for every meeting he attends, and in addition, shall receive one dollar for each diploma.

STEWARDS' DUTY.

Section 4. The Stewards shall receive the jewels and regalia from the Master of the Wardrobe and distribute them; shall collect the same at the closing of the Chapter, and return them to the Master of the Wardrobe; shall prepare the candidates, and during the hours of refreshment assist the Closet Steward.

CLOSET STEWARD'S DUTY.

Section 5. The Closet Steward shall have intrusted to his care all the regalia and other property of the Chapter, appertaining to refreshment; he shall keep the same in good order, and exhibit a schedule thereof previous to the election of officers; he shall provide suitable refreshments when directed by the High Priest, and once in three months exhibit his bill for settlement; and, as a compensation for his services, he shall be exempt from quarterages, and receive one dollar, or such other sum as may be agreed upon, for each meeting he attends.

DUTY OF THE MASTER OF THE WARDROBE.

Section 6. The Master of the Wardrobe shall have intrusted to his charge all the Regalia and other property appertaining to the work of the Chapter; he shall keep the same clean and in order, and at the time of meeting shall deliver whatever may be wanted in the work, and at closing shall see the same carefully folded and deposited; he shall exhibit an inventory of the same previous to the election of officers, and, as a compensation for his services, shall be exempted from paying quarterages, and receive such other compensation as may from time to time be agreed upon.

TYLER'S DUTY AND COMPENSATION.

Section 7. The Tyler shall call on the Secretary for the notifications, and distribute them one day at least previous to each regular meeting; shall distribute the notifications for special meetings as soon as possible after having received them of the Secretary; shall attend in season at every meeting, and at all times be subject to the government of the Chapter, and as a compensation for his services shall be paid two dollars, or such other sum as the Chapter may from time to time agree upon for each meeting he attends.

ARTICLE III

MODE OF APPLICATION.—TIME AND MANNER OF ADMISSION.

Each applicant for membership shall be proposed by a member of the Chapter, but shall not be balloted for until the next stated meeting, nor until after a committee appointed to investigate his character shall have reported thereon, and his name shall have been inserted on the notifications for the meeting at which the ballot is to be taken; the balloting to take place at 8 o'clock, P. M., from April to September, inclusive, and at 7 o'clock, P. M., from October to March, inclusive; and the applicant must have the unanimous vote of the members present, pay three dollars, if exalted in this Chapter, or five dollars if exalted in any other, and sign the By-Laws; after which he shall be entitled to all the privileges and immunities of membership. Should the applicant neglect to appear within six months from the time of his admission as a member, sign the By-Laws, and pay the usual fee, such negligence shall operate as a forfeiture of all claims to membership.

ARTICLE IV.

QUALIFICATIONS AND PRIVILEGES OF HONORARY MEMBERS.

Section 1. Any member of this Chapter, who has been, or who shall be, admitted an honorary member, shall not thereby lose any privilege of membership, and other honorary members may vote on all questions excepting the disposal of the funds; and no Companion shall be admitted an honorary member but by an unanimous ballot, nor unless his name shall have been inserted on the notifications for the evening on which the ballot is to be taken.

QUARTERAGES.

Section 2. Every member (except honorary and seafaring, and those before exempted) shall pay quarterly fifty cents. Seafaring members shall be excused only while abroad.

FORFEITURE OF MEMBERSHIP.

Section 3. Each member shall settle his account with the Secretary, at least once in a year; but should any refuse or neglect so to do, his name shall be returned to the Standing Committee, and the Secretary shall notify him of the same, and should the neglect continue six months longer, without an excuse satisfactory to the Standing Committee, it shall thereupon operate as a forfeiture of his membership, and the Secretary shall inform the Chapter thereof, and minute the same upon the records.

DECEASED MEMBERS.

Section 4. In case of the decease of any member of this Chapter, the Treasurer shall, immediately on his knowledge thereof, present the widow or orphan child or children of such member, as the case may be, with twentyfive dollars.

ARTICLE V.

QUALIFICATIONS AND DECLARATIONS NECESSARY FOR EXALTATION.

Section 1. Each candidate for exaltation shall be accepted by an unanimous ballot only; each candidate, before he is balloted for, shall sign the following declaration, viz. :—

I, A— B—, of the city or town of —, by occupation —, having received the degree of Master Mason in — Lodge, and being desirous of further light and knowledge in the sublime art, do voluntarily offer myself a Candidate for the mysteries of Royal Arch Masonry. In doing this, I declare upon my honor, that I am unbiassed by friends, and uninfluenced by unworthy motives; that I am solely prompted by a favorable opinion conceived of the Institution, and a sincere wish to become more serviceable to my fellow-creatures; and that I will cheerfully conform to the ancient established usages and customs of the Society; as witness my hand this — day of —, A.D. 18—, or of Masonry 58—.

The foregoing declaration shall be accompanied by the following certificate, which shall be signed by three Royal Arch Masons:—

We, the subscribers, hereby certify, that we are acquainted with A— B—, named in the above declaration; that we believe him to be of regular and upright conduct, fair fame, sober life and good moral character. We do, therefore, recommend him as a Master Mason, worthy and well qualified to be exalted to the sublime degree of ROYAL ARCH MASONRY.

Witness our hands, this — day of —, A. L. 58—.

FEEES FOR THE DEGREES.

Section 2. Each candidate for the degrees shall deposit with the Secretary thirty-one dollars, (the fees for the several degrees) before his name shall be inserted on the notifications, and a committee shall be appointed to investigate and report on his moral character. If he should not be accepted, the deposit shall be returned; if accepted, and he refuses or neglects to attend one year after acceptance, it shall be forfeited, unless a satisfactory excuse for such neglect be given.

FEEES FOR MARK AND M. E. MASTER'S DEGREES.

Section 3. Whereas many Companions, who have been exalted out of this jurisdiction, have never received the Mark degree, and some who have not received the Most Excellent Master's degree, therefore, any such Companion, upon receiving the Mark degree in this Chapter, shall pay ten dollars, and for receiving the Most Excellent Master's degree, shall pay six dollars.

CANDIDATES PROPOSED AND BALLOTTED FOR.

Section 4. Each candidate for the degrees shall be proposed by a member, but shall not be balloted for until thirteen days after such proposal; provided, however, if the candidate be a stranger, unable to procure the certificates required, and bound immediately abroad, if his name shall have been inserted on the notifications and dispensation therefor be obtained, and the members shall be perfectly satisfied with his Masonic requirements, and with such recommendations respecting his moral character as he may be able to produce, he may be balloted for, any thing in the foregoing to the contrary notwithstanding.

FEEES FOR DIPLOMA.

Section 5. Any Companion exalted in this Chapter desiring a Diploma shall, upon receiving the same, pay two dollars if on parchment, and one dollar if on paper.

MEMBERS, HOW RECEIVED.

Section 6. No candidate for membership, or exaltation, shall be balloted for unless his name be on the notifications for the meeting at which the ballot is to be taken.

ARTICLE VI.

MONEY AND PROPERTY, HOW DISPOSED OF.

The money and property of every kind belonging to the Chapter, shall be appropriated to pay the necessary expenses, and for the relief of distressed and indigent Companions, their widow and orphans; provided that no greater sum than twenty dollars shall be given to any one applicant at one and the same meeting. And said money and property shall never be divided amongst the members; but should it ever happen that the charter be surrendered, or forfeited, or less than nine members continue to meet and work, then all the said money, funds and property shall belong to the Most Excellent Grand Chapter of this Commonwealth.

ARTICLE VII.

WHO ARE, AND WHAT IS THE DUTY OF, THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

Section 1. The High Priest, King and Scribe, shall be a Standing Committee; they shall examine all bills against the Chapter, and no bill shall be paid without the signature of at least one of said officers. They shall examine the accounts of the Treasurer and Secretary, and make report of the same at the meeting for the election of officers. They shall hear and determine all excuses concerning forfeitures, and shall superintend generally the affairs of the Chapter.

OF COMMITTEES GENERALLY.

Section 2. Every member chosen on committee, who accepts the appointment, shall duly attend to the duties assigned him. The first member chosen shall be chairman, and shall notify his Companions when and where to convene. All committees, (the Standing Committee excepted,) shall report their proceedings to the Chapter at the regular meeting next after their appointment.

The expenses of the committees shall be paid by the Chapter.

MODE OF APPLICATION FOR CHARITY.

Section 3. Any Companion, or the widow and children of any Companion, who may ask the pecuniary assistance of the Chapter, shall make application therefor in writing, and whatever sum may be granted for their relief shall be presented by some member of the Chapter, who shall take a receipt therefor.

ARTICLE VIII.

AMENDMENTS AND ALTERATIONS, HOW MADE.

No amendment or alteration in the foregoing By-Laws, shall be made at the meeting at which it is proposed, nor until after it has been considered by a committee, and notice of a proposed amendment having been given on the notifications of the meeting at which it is to be considered.

EXTRACTS FROM RECORDS

OF

ST. ANDREW'S CHAPTER.

THE first meeting of St. Andrew's Royal Arch Chapter, recorded, was held on the 28th of August, A. D. 1769; and was then styled the "Royal Arch Lodge."

The names of the following persons are recorded as being present:—

R. W. James Brown, Master.
Charles Chambers, Senior Warden.
Winthrop Gray, Junior Warden.
William McMullen.
Henry Glynn.
William McKeen.
John Wooddington.
Joshua Loring, D. Sec.
Samuel Sumner, Tyler.

At this early period of Royal Arch Masonry in Boston, it appears by the record that the degrees of "Excellent, Super-Excellent, and Royal Arch," were conferred in the Royal Arch Lodge.

Soon after a code of By-Laws was adopted, which was styled "Rules, Orders and Regulations to be observed by the Brethren of the Royal Arch Lodge, now held in Boston, New England."

Regular meetings were held on the second Tuesday of each month.

The following Officers were elected April 17, 1770 :—

Winthrop Gray, Master.
Joseph Tyler, Senior Warden.
John Hill, Junior Warden.
John Symmes, Treasurer.
Joshua Loring, Secretary.
Thomas Alexander, Senior Deacon.
William McKeen, Junior Deacon.

On the 14th of May, 1770, it is recorded, that the "Most Worshipful JOSEPH WARREN, Esq.," was made a Royal Arch Mason.*

*General Warren was killed at the battle of Bunker Hill. A Monument [see frontispiece,] was erected to his memory, on the spot where he fell, by King Solomon's Lodge, Charlestown, bearing the following inscription :—

"Erected A. D. 1794, by King Solomon's Lodge of Freemasons, constituted at Charlestown, 1753,

IN MEMORY OF
MAJOR GENERAL WARREN, AND HIS ASSOCIATES,

who were slain on this memorable spot, June 17, 1775.

'None but they who set a just value upon the blessings of Liberty, are worthy to enjoy her.

In vain we toiled; in vain we fought; we bled in vain, if you our offspring want valor to repel the assaults of her invaders.'

Charlestown Settled, 1628; burnt, 1775; Rebuilt, 1776.

The enclosed land given by Hon. James Russell."

The monument was eighteen feet high, placed on a platform eight feet high and eight square. It was dedicated by Brother John Soley, Jr., December, 1794.

The body of General Warren was buried on Bunker Hill. On the 8th of April, 1776, his remains were disinterred and entombed in Boston, on which occasion, a funeral Oration was pronounced at King's Chapel, by Brother Perez Morton.

General Warren was 35 years of age at the time of his decease, and Grand Master of Freemasons for North America.

July 10, 1770. At this time the Royal Arch Lodge held its meetings in the hall of St. Andrew's Lodge, at the "Green Dragon Tavern," in Union street.

October 8, 1770. New Rules, Orders, and Regulations, were adopted. Regular meetings on the last Thursday of each month.

January 31, 1771. Jeremiah Webb was chosen Secretary, in place of Joshua Loring, resigned.

There is no further election of officers recorded, until the 21st of October, 1790; and no record of any meetings between March 26th, 1773, and March, 20th, 1789, a period of sixteen years. The difficulties immediately preceding, and during the American Revolution, no doubt interrupted and prevented the regular meetings of the Brethren.

Another code of By-Laws was adopted, date unknown, but supposed to be in the year 1789.

The following record was found in an old book, which has been used to register the names of initiates :—

Original members, April 1st, 1789,

M. E. William McKeen, H. P.
John Symmes, K.
John Jenkins, Sec.
Benjamin Hurd, Jr., Sec'y.
Jonathan Trask.
John Cade.
Samuel Moore.
Thomas Dakin.
Matthew C. Groves.
John Cade, Tyler.

When the above mentioned officers were elected, does not appear.

The next election of officers, according to the records, took place on the 21st of October, 1790, when the following were chosen:—

William McKeen, R. A. Master.
John Jenkins, Senior Warden.
Benjamin Hurd, Jr., Junior Warden.
Samuel Moore, Secretary.
John Cade, Tyler.

March 31, 1791. Entick's Book of Constitutions, was presented to the Lodge, by Elisha Sigourney.

November 28, 1793. The degree of Mark Master was connected with the other degrees conferred in the Chapter; a Mark Plate procured, and a book provided in which to record the Marks of the members.

January 30, 1794. The words "Royal Arch Chapter," used for the first time in recording the proceedings of the Chapter.

March 10, 1795. A conference was held with a committee from the Chapter in Newburyport, which resulted in establishing a uniformity of work and lectures by the two Chapters.

The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Massachusetts was organized by delegates from St. Andrew's Chapter, Boston, and King Cyrus's Chapter, Newburyport, who assembled at Masons' Hall, in the Green Dragon Tavern, Boston, on Tuesday, the 13th of March, A. D. 1798.

The Charter of St. Andrew's Chapter emanates from this body. It is dated the 14th of February, A.

D. 1800, and bears the signatures of the following Grand Officers:—

Benjamin Hurd, Jr., Grand High Priest.
Jonathan Gage, Deputy Grand High Priest.
James Harrison, Grand King.
Joshua Greenleaf, Grand Scribe.
William Woart, Grand Secretary, and was granted to the following Companions, Wm. McKean, John Jenkins, Benjamin Hurd, Jr., John Cade, Thomas Daken, Joshua Eaton, William Williams, Edward Rumney, Benjamin Smith, Jr., Benjamin James, Henry Fowle, W. B. Eaton, John Soley, Jr., William Woart, James Harrison, Edmund Bowman, Edward Bell, John Lamson, John Raymond, F. Euslin, Alexander Orrok, Hezekiah Hudson, Jonathan Loring, Jr., William Blake, Joseph Tucker, Thomas O. Larkin, Samuel Billings, Samuel Bradley, Patrick Fletcher, Edmund Holden, Joseph Smith, Henry Purkitt, Seth Sweetser, David Stanwood and Asahel Bigelow.

February 6, 1805. The Chapter met this evening for the first time at "Masons' Hall," North side of the Market House. Previous to this its meetings were held in the hall of St. Andrew's Lodge, at the Green Dragon Tavern, on Union street.

February 22, 1815. At a meeting of this date it was voted, "that all business be postponed, and the Chapter closed, for the purpose of giving the members an opportunity to participate with their fellow-citizens at large, in the celebration of the happy return of PEACE to our native land, and to commemorate the natal day of the man dearest to our hearts, our revered and beloved Brother, GEORGE WASHINGTON.

July 23, 1817. The new Masonic Hall, in the Exchange Coffee House, was occupied by the Chapter for the first time, and an address was delivered by Robert Lash, Jr.

November 3, 1818. The Exchange Coffee House was consumed by fire, and most of the regalia and other property of the Chapter, was destroyed in the conflagration.

June 17, 1825. The Chapter united with other Masonic bodies, in laying the Corner Stone of the Bunker Hill Monument.

January 4, 1832. The meetings of the Chapter were held in the Masonic Temple, for the first time.

March 3, 1846. Col. Henry Purkett, an honorary member of the Chapter died, aged 91.
